4. Committees, officials, and volunteers in all aquatic disciplines must address this responsibility to support equality diversity and inclusion in our sport.

Physical Contact guide for coaches.

- You may feel that as a swim coach you may need some form of physical contact with the swimmers from time to time and despite rumours the Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU) believes that physical contact so long as appropriate amounts and in an appropriate location is acceptable for swim coaches.
- The Coach should seek to explain the nature and reason for the physical contact to the child reinforcing the teaching or coaching skill. Unless the situation is an emergency, the adult should, if possible, ask the child for permission.
- Contact should not involve touching genital areas, buttocks, breasts or any other part of the body that might cause a child distress or embarrassment.
- Physical contact should always take place in an open or public environment and not take place in secret or out of sight of others. This means in the pool or on deck and when it comes to success or distress at meets with other people present.
- Physical contact during training should always be intended to meet the child's needs, NOT the adult's. The adult should only use physical contact if their aim is to:
 - Develop sports skills or techniques (ie head placement, arm/pull skills, stretching)
 - To treat an injury (cramp, sprains etc)
 - To prevent an injury or accident from occurring (to stop a collision or dangerous behaviours)
 - To cope with the needs of a child in success or distress. (high fives, an arm over shoulder)
- Touching young participants, including well intentioned informal and formal gestures such as putting a hand on the shoulder or arm, can, if repeated regularly, lead to the possibility of questions being raised. As a general principle, adults in positions of responsibility should not make gratuitous or unnecessary physical contact with children and young people. It is particularly unwise to attribute frequent touching to their teaching or coaching style
- Physical discipline is completely unacceptable and is illegal.
- If ever in doubt, please approach the head coach or welfare for guidance.
- If you feel a swimmer or parent is making in appropriate physical contact with yourself then you should also use the welfare email and inform the head coach, the welfare function is in place to support every member of Torfaen Dolphins.

Any misdemeanours and breach of this code of conduct will be dealt with by the club in the first instance.

Annex B

Code of Conduct (pages 78 to 82 of Section 2 of the Swim Wales Child Protection Policy (“y Plant”))

Good Practice Guidelines on the use of Social Networking Sites by Swim Wales Clubs and Club Members

Social media usage

There has been a growing awareness in sport of the increasing communication by adults and young people on the rapidly developing social networking sites and how this media has become a feature of social communication. There are risks associated with these developments, and Swim Wales has identified a number of issues that have led to both disciplinary and safeguarding concerns which stem from the improper or inappropriate use of such sites by its members.

Introduction

Swim Wales recognise that the use of social networking sites such as My Space, Bebo, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat and Twitter is a rapidly growing phenomenon and is increasingly being used as a communication tool of choice by young people and more recently by adults. Facebook is the largest such site whose “mission is to give people the power to share and make the world more open and connected” and is reported to have in excess of five hundred million active users worldwide. A third of the UK population is reported to have a Facebook account.

These sites permit users to chat online, post pictures, and write ‘blogs’ etc, through the creation of an online profile, that can either be publicly available to all or restricted to an approved circle of electronic friends.

Sites such as You Tube and Google provide a platform for uploading and viewing video clips, which with the latest cameras and mobile phones becomes ever easier and can be almost instantaneous.

In addition to these sites, Twitter is a social networking and micro blogging service that enables users to send and read other user messages called tweets. Tweets are like online text messages of up to a maximum of 140 characters displayed on the author’s profile page. Tweets are publicly visible by default, however the sender can restrict message delivery to their friends’ list only.

Whilst these technologies provide exciting opportunities, they are accompanied by dangers and negative consequences if abused by users. The purpose of this policy is to provide a recommendation of best practice to all Swim Wales club members and parents on the use of social networking sites as they relate to that individual’s role in a Swim Wales club.

Note: Throughout this policy a young person/child is anyone under the age of 18.

Policy for coaches, teachers and other officers in a position of trust and responsibility in respect of children in a Swim Wales club

1. Swim Wales’ members in a position of trust and/or must not be in contact with young people through social networking sites if they hold such a position in respect of that individual young person.
2. Should a young person in your club request to become a named friend on your Social Networking Page or request that you become a named friend on the young persons Social Networking Page you must decline if:
 - a. You are in a position of responsibility in respect of that child.
 - b. You hold a position of trust and responsibility in the club.
 - c. Your contact with the child is through a Swim Wales club and the parent/guardian of the child does not give their consent to such contact.
3. The social network site must never be used as a medium by which to abuse or criticise Swim Wales members or Swim Wales clubs and to do so would be in breach of Swim Wales Law and Regulations.
4. The publishing of a photograph or video footage on a social networking site is governed by the same requirements as any other media – see Swim Wales Photography Policy

Policy for coaches who have children that swim in the club where they coach.

The issue has been raised that parents are becoming members of social networking sites that their children sign up to for security reasons to ensure the wellbeing of their own child by being able to view their child's site. This will give the parent access via their child's site to all children listed as friends of their child. It would not be appropriate for Swim Wales to prevent a parent who is also a coach in his/her child's club from using this form of protection for their child's online activities.

Therefore in such cases the coach can:

- Have swimmers in the club on the site he is accessing providing Swim Wales under 18 year old club members on the site are listed as friends of his child
- The coach concerned does not have direct contact with those swimmers through the social networking site
- The coach does not accept such swimmers as friends on his home site; and
- The coach should inform the Club Welfare Officer of this arrangement.

Coaches/teachers/officials who are under 18.

Swim Wales recognise social networking sites can be a useful tool for teachers, coaches and officials within Swim Wales clubs to share information with other teachers, coaches or officials. If, however, the teacher, coach or official is under the age of 18 while they may be a colleague, the requirements of 1 and 2 above must be adhered to.

If the young person is aged 16 or 17 it is the view of Swim Wales that to restrict the ability to share professional information with them from other coaches, teachers or officials may be detrimental in their professional development in their role in Swim Wales.

Therefore in such cases if the parent of a young person in a position of responsibility aged 16/17 and the young person themselves requests to have contact with an adult club officer or coach for the purposes of sharing professional information relevant to their role the club should:

- Gain written consent of the parent/guardian and young person to have such contact naming the individual adult and social networking site concerned
- The named adult must sign an agreement to keep the contact with the young person to the discussion of matters relevant to the young person's professional role in the club.
- All such communications should be shared with an identified 3rd person (eg. the young person's parent/guardian or club welfare officer).
- If the young person or the adult is found to breach the above agreement action must be taken by the club to address the concern and/or the breach referred to Swim Wales or the statutory agencies if appropriate.

Policy Guidance Swim Wales' members under the age of 18

1. Do not ask your club coach or teacher to be your social networking site friend – they will refuse as that would breach good practice.
2. Use the internet positively and do not place yourself at risk. Have a look at www.ceop.gov.uk for some useful tips.
3. Consider who you are inviting to be your friend and follow the good advice of the social networking sites to ensure you are talking to the person you believe you are talking to.
4. Always remember that anything you say including photos, pictures and video clips posted on your site may be shared with people other than those for whom it was intended.
5. Never post or send any photographs, videos or make comments that may be:
 - a. Hurtful, untrue and upsetting and you may regret sharing later on;
 - b. May be used by other people in a way you did not intend or want.
6. Do not put pictures of other club members on the site within the club setting as you may breach Swim Wales Photography Policy. If you do wish to upload such a picture you must get advice and consent of your parent, the other young person and their parent and a club officer before even considering uploading such a photo.

This will not prevent you having pictures of your swimming friends on your site taken outside of the sporting arena but it is good advice to always ensure they and their parents are happy with any picture you have of them on your site.

7. Always be aware that social networking sites are a method of communication like letter writing and the spoken word. They are bound by the same laws and rules. Such technology is instant and this allows you as the user to react in the 'heat of the moment', where in the past you would have been required to write a letter which would have taken time and allowed for you to think again before sending. So never place a comment on the internet that you would not put in writing or say to the individual concerned as to do so may not only breach Swim Wales Policy but also the law.

Policy for parents of Swim Wales' members under the age of 18

There have been occasions where parents of Swim Wales members have used social networking sites to criticise or verbally abuse swimming clubs, its officers, officials, coaches, teachers, and swimmers in an inappropriate and unacceptable manner. This has in some cases led the person who is the subject of the verbal abuse to take action through statutory agencies or statutory legislation to address the comments made.

Swim Wales has produced a parent's code of conduct which can be found in Y Plant. Section 6 of this Policy states that parents are expected to:

"Behave responsibly as a spectator at training and treat swimmers, coaches, committee members and parents of yours and other clubs with due respect meeting Swim Wales commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion".

Parents must be aware that posting messages, comments or any other media on a social networking site that breaches the above requirement of a parent in a Swim Wales club will breach Swim Wales Parents Code of Conduct.

Social networking services, social media and sport: Guidelines for safeguarding children and young people - The CPSU Briefing Document "Social networking services, social media and sport: Guidelines for safeguarding children and young people" gives more in-depth guidance on social networking sites and can be accessed via the British Swimming or Child Protection in Sport Unit website at www.cpsu.org.uk.

Further to the above British Swimming Web Team has produced a user guide for parents and swimmers for Twitter, which is available to view on their website at www.swimming.org

Young Coaches aged 18 to 21

Swim Wales recognises that many young coaches aged 18 to 21 will have been swimmers before becoming a coach and have been friends with their fellow swimmers, some of whom will be between the ages of 16/17. It is therefore plausible they will have those swimmers contact details and be friends on social media sites, and other methods of electronic communication.

For this purpose the Swim Wales accepts it would be inappropriate to require such swimming friends to be removed from their social media sites. Therefore, in such cases:

1. If a coach aged 18 to 21 had friends on their social networking site that were/are swimmers aged 16/17 prior to undertaking the role of coach, Swim Wales do not expect them to remove those swimmers from their listed friends.
2. In such circumstances the coach is advised to inform the club Welfare Officer and head coach.
3. The head coach must make every effort to ensure the coach is not the primary coach for those specified young persons except on an occasional basis.

What to do if you have concerns

As a user of a social networking site, whether you are a child or an adult, you may at some time have a concern about what you are seeing or being told about by another user. Concerns may range from negative or abusive comments, and cyber bullying to suspected grooming for sexual abuse.
